

100% ETHANOL FOR FUEL SOON?

THE MINISTRY OF Road Transport and Highways has proposed the inclusion of E100 in testing and certification standards by amending India's Central Motor Vehicles Rules (CMVR). The biggest puzzle, however, is that no automobile manufacturer has flex-fuel vehicles on sale. E100 will need separate dispensing stations at petrol pumps that will cater only to E100 compliant vehicles. While most auto companies have showcased flex-fuel prototypes, bringing those to the market could take a long time, say experts. Such vehicles are expected to cost more than regular petrol-powered vehicles.

OFF THE GLOBAL RADAR?

AMID THE WEST Asia crisis, international airlines have cut flights from India to various international locations. The capacity deployment has been reduced to Southeast Asian countries—Thailand, Malaysia, and Singapore for the summer schedule. Thai Air Asia, Thai Lion Air, and Air Asia have reduced flights to non-metro cities in India. Air India Express and IndiGo have also seen some network overhaul on Southeast Asian routes.

MAKING A PROVIDENT MOVE

THE EMPLOYEES' PROVIDENT Fund Organisation is set to launch a dedicated portal for subscribers with accounts that pre-date the Universal Account Number and are from before 2014. The E-PRAAPTI or the EPF Aadhaar-Based Access Portal for Tracking Inoperative Accounts scheme will facilitate identification, tracking, UAN linking and activation of old EPF accounts. Likely to be launched soon, it is expected to help millions of subscribers who are trying to access their retirement savings.
