

CURIOUS KISSA

PRAMOD PUSHKARNA

Despite all his alleged atrocities during the Emergency, Sanjay Gandhi was booked in a relatively inconsequential case, the disappearance of the reels of Kissa Kursi Ka, a veiled satire on the establishment produced by Janata Party MP and filmmaker Amrit Nahata. The film, which had been disposed of by Gandhi and the then I&B minister V.C. Shukla when it came up before the Censor Board in April 1975, blew up into one of the biggest controversies of 1978 when, on May 5, Gandhi was remanded to custody and his bail cancelled.
