

ASIAN HEART

The Mark of Quality Healthcare

AHI reaffirms its commitment to world-class cardiac care by being the only hospital in India to achieve JCI, ISO and NIAHO accreditation.

The Asian Heart Institute (AHI) has been providing highest quality of cardiac care to patients from across the world for the past four years. The institute has a holistic approach towards heart care, based on ethics, quality care and professionalism, backed by competitive prices.

It has been designed as per the guidelines from the Cleveland Clinic Foundation, USA which ensures that, it's medical facilities are of international standards. AHI team of highly qualified cardiologists, cardiac surgeons and medical staff from India and abroad provide excellent medical care to its patients. Today AHI is regarded as a bench mark in hospital design which is patient centric to enhance safety and comfort of patients.

AHI is the only hospital outside USA to be accredited by ISO, JCI (USA) and NIAHO (USA). Endorsement by any regulatory body signifies the hospital's commitment to quality, safety and continuous improvement.

The National Integrated Accreditation for Healthcare Organizations (NIAHO) is an independent accreditation that integrates the ISO 9001: 2000 quality management system certification with TUVHS safety and quality performance standards, while accreditation by the Joint Commission International (JCI), USA meets a need for recognition of quality healthcare providers throughout the world.

Joint Commission International's (JCI), USA accreditation recognizes the organisation's performance in complying with international healthcare quality standards that reflect state-of-the-art healthcare practices and healthcare delivery trends. These standards are intended to help organisations to:

Earning accreditation from JCI, ISO and NIAHO is another step towards excellence that this organization is striving to achieve. - Dr. Ramakanta Panda, Vice Chairman and Managing Director, AHI.

The medical community should be proud that Asian Heart Institute has made a commitment to quality and safety. The accreditation by Joint Commission International proves the same.
