

FAIZ AHMED FAIZ in his poem Subh-e-Azadi (Freedom's Dawn)

"This leprous daybreak, dawn night's fangs have manged,
This is not that long-looked for break of day."

Courtesy Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

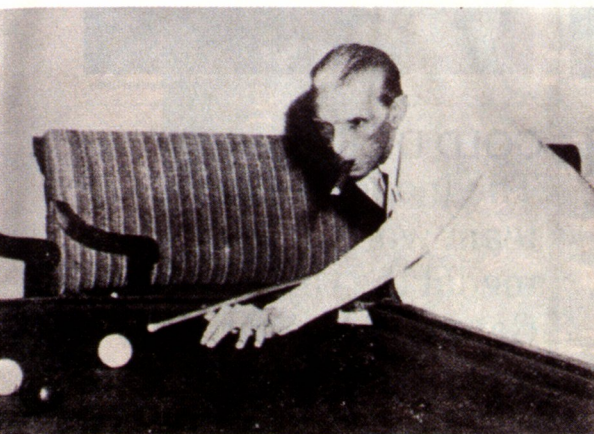

Jawaharlal Nehru at the Kurukshetra refugee camp. This was the largest of the nearly 200 camps set up to house refugees from Pakistan. Planned for 1,00,000 people, it came to accommodate thrice that number.

"YOU ARE FREE, YOU ARE FREE TO GO TO YOUR TEMPLES. YOU ARE FREE TO GO TO YOUR MOSQUES."

Mohammad Ali Jinnah

So said Jinnah in his Independence Day speech. Biographer Stanley Wolpert described him as the man who "conjured" Pakistan "by the force of his indomitable will". Jinnah started out with supporting Muslim-Hindu unity. But pushed for a separate nation in 1940. During his presidential address to the Pakistan Constituent Assembly he said, "On both sides, there are people who may not agree with it, but in my judgement there was no other solution and I am sure history will record its verdict in favour of it."

Courtesy Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

- The UN General Assembly passed a resolution for the partition of Palestine.
- Chester Carlson, signed an agreement to develop a copy machine. This was the beginning of Xerox.
- The International Monetary Fund began operations.
- Gangster Al Capone (below) died of syphilis in Miami.

AP PHOTO

- The House of Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) scoured Hollywood for Communists.

A NEW ERA

Temples in South India opened their doors to Harijans, starting with The Tyagarajaswami Temple in Tiruvarur. Dalit leader Jagjivan Ram later addressed the devotees in front of the mandapam.