

THE LIGHT DIES

Courtesy Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

On the evening of January 30, as he was walking to his prayer meeting, Gandhi was stopped by Nathuram Vinayak Godse, who took out a Beretta and shot him thrice. Twenty-eight minutes later, Gandhi was dead. "The light has gone out of our lives," a broken Nehru said that night.

THE K FACTOR

The first Indo-Pak war over Kashmir broke out and the highest tank battle in the world took place at Zojila Pass. On Nehru's request UN intervened and ordered a ceasefire. It then suggested a plebiscite in the Valley.

Courtesy Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

FIRST CUT

- The first Indian motor car rolled off Hindustan Motors Limited's assembly line.
- Jala Usha, the first India-built modern vessel, took to the sea.
- The first stage of the Damodar power project, costing approximately Rs 12 crore, kicked off.

<<DID YOU KNOW

- The dewan of Junagarh who advised its Nawab to accede to Pakistan was Sir Shah Nawaz Bhutto, father of Zulfikar Bhutto.
- A handful of Mahatma Gandhi's ashes was deposited at the State Bank of India in Orissa. It was released only in 1997.

GOLD DRIBBLE

The Indian hockey team won the gold medal the Olympic Games in London, the first of its three consecutive wins.