

1951

COUPLE SIZZLE

Elaborate sets and memorable songs made Awara an instant hit. Nargis' bathing suit caused a stir. Starring Raj Kapoor and Nargis, the film was released in Russia as Brodigaya two years later where orchestras played tunes from the film for the actors visiting the country.

ETERNAL PADAYATRI Vinobha Bhave

Courtesy Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

He covered over 50,000 miles and collected more than 36 lakh acres from landlords all over India. But the birth of the voluntary land gift movement popularly known as Bhoodan began while Gandhian leader Vinoba Bhave was on a walking tour of Telangana. In Pochampelli village, landless peasants told him they needed 100 acres of land. Bhave asked the landlord Ramchandra Reddi to donate 100 acres and met with success.

"IT HITS YOU ON THE HEAD AND MAKES YOU THINK."

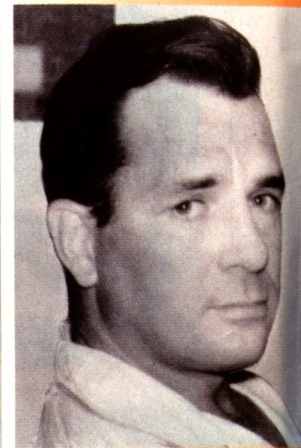

Swiss-born architect Le Corbusier (left) goes over the design for Chandigarh in 1950, which Nehru asked him to construct as a new city "symbolic of the freedom of India, unfettered by traditions of the past... an expression of the nation's faith in the future." Later, he said, "It hits you on the head, and makes you think."

Time Life Pictures/Getty Images

ELSEWHERE...

- Chinese Communists forced the Dalai Lama to surrender his army to Beijing.
- Jack Kerouac (below) wrote On the Road on a 120-foot-long scroll.

- AP
- J.D. Salinger's novel, The Catcher in the Rye, published.
 - Liaquat Ali Khan, prime minister of Pakistan, was shot dead.
 - Shah Ali Razmara of Iran was assassinated.
 - Jordan's King Abdullah Ibn Hussein was assassinated.

2 million tonnes was the amount of food grain India received to tackle the drought crisis.

200 the number of aircraft movements handled in a single day at Dum Dum airport in Calcutta.