

ELSEWHERE...

- The Diaries of Anne Frank was published in English.
- Elizabeth was formally proclaimed Queen of England following the death of her father, King George VI.

- A revolution in Egypt occurred after Colonel Gamal Abdel Nasser overthrew the monarchy and ended 2,300 years of foreign domination.

Courtesy Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

JAWAHARLAL NEHRU on Potti Sriramalu's hunger strike for an Andhra state

"I'm unmoved by this and propose to ignore it completely"

The New Temples

Jawaharlal Nehru at the Tungabhadra dam, the largest in Karnataka. Situated north of Bangalore, it is spread over 400 sq km with 33 gates. On the Independence Day all 33 gates are opened.

Courtesy Nehru Memorial Museum and Library

3,89,816

phials of indelible ink were used in the first election.

76

'A' certificates and 6,492 'U' certificates were issued by the Central Board of Film Censors till October 31, 1952.

133

Vijay Manjrekar's score in the first Test against England at Leeds.