

"I WAS BEING BUFFETED BY THE ICY WINDS OF THE COLD WAR."

India Abroad

That's how Jawaharlal Nehru began his speech in the United Nations General Assembly. He is seen here with Defence Minister V.K. Krishna Menon. The 1960 session was an astounding collection of leaders—US President Dwight Eisenhower; prime ministers Harold Macmillan of the United Kingdom and India's Nehru; the Soviet Union's shoe-thumping Nikita Khrushchev and Cuba's Fidel Castro.

PYAR KIYA TO DARNA KYA?

K. Asif's Mughal-e-Azam finally hit the screens. It took 500 shooting days over 15 years to make, cost Rs 1.5 crore and mirrored a real-life love affair between Dilip Kumar and Madhubala, which began when she got her make-up woman to take a rose to him. It bore the message: "If you want me, please order this rose; if not, send it back." Indeed, pyar kiya to darna kya?
