■ Working in the UK after studies

International Graduate Scheme* — This scheme allows many students who have successfully completed their UK bachelor's degree or postgraduate studies to apply to stay in the UK for up to a year to work in any kind of job without needing a work permit, or to be self employed or set up in business. You may qualify to move on from the scheme to work permit employment or into the Highly Skilled Programme or Innovators Scheme.

FRESH TALENT: WORKING IN SCOTLAND SCHEME* — This scheme enables international students who have successfully completed an HND, undergraduate degree course, Master's PhD, or postgraduate certificate or diploma at a Scottish further or higher education institution to apply to stay in Scotland for up to two years after completing their studies in order to work.

WORK PERMIT* — An employer can apply for a work permit to enable them to offer a job to someone who would not otherwise be allowed to work in the UK, under a 'shortage occupation' list which is updated regularly.
