

FAILED ATTACK
Kafeel being overpowered by police
at Glasgow airport

THE BANGALORE BOMBERS

THE CHILLING STORY OF HOW THREE INDIAN PROFESSIONALS
PLOTTED FIREBOMB ATTACKS ALONG WITH OTHER INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC RADICALS TO CAUSE MAYHEM AND DEATH IN THE UK

By Jason Burke in London and Nirmala Ravindran

Kafeel Ahmed is yet to regain consciousness. The 28-year-old engineer from Bangalore is unlikely ever to do so. Over 92 per cent of his body burned, he lies in the ICU of the Royal Infirmary in Glasgow and is desperately ill. When he doused himself in petrol after driving a Jeep Cherokee loaded with gas canisters and fuelled into the front of Glasgow airport on June 30, he was exposed to a fire so hot that his mobile phone melted into his flesh. Though Kafeel is yet to face charges, the man who jumped from the car as it ploughed into security

