

Indian IT's Brave M&A Artist

business today
for managing tomorrow

September 9, 2007 Rs. 15/-

Premji's Global March
In less than two years, Wipro's Azim Premji has snapped up 11 different companies, mostly abroad. Why is the tech czar in a tearing hurry? It's a part of his grand plan to make the soaps-to-software Wipro a truly global corporation.

ON SALE NOW

The Sub-Prime Scare
How it spooked the stock markets.

BT Money
Where to invest now?

Telecom's 'Towering' Riches
Cell phone towers are unlocking billions of dollars for telcos.

PLUS:

- Tata Tea: High on Water
- Indian Pharma: $20 Billion by 2015
- Coming Up: FM's Tax Clean-up Plans

In an industry that's loath to make large global acquisitions, Wipro's Azim Premji has been burning rubber, buying into 11 different companies in less than two years. What drives his appetite for M&As? Find out in the latest issue of Business Today, India's No. 1 business magazine.

Plus: Subprime Contagion Spooks Stock Markets • Why Telecom Operators are Licking Their Chops • A Special Report on the Aviation Industry.

CELEBRATING
15
Years of Leadership
business today

Executive Women Special in the latest issue of Business Today More. Available only in Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Bangalore and Kolkata.

No. 1 as per IRS 2007 R1 and NRS 2006 (Paid & Claimed Readership)

business today
FOR MANAGING TOMORROW