

WILL THE GOVERNMENT FALL?

In the midst of the crisis over the nuclear deal, INDIA TODAY polled some prominent astrologers for their take on the survival of the Manmohan Singh Government. Here's what the stars foretell.

P. KHURANA, Chandigarh

Will the Government fall?

>> By all means. The malefic influence of Mercury and Moon is afflicting UPA and will lead to its disintegration due to power hungry leaders and clash of ideologies. The Rahu-Ketu axis is creating a great phobia in the minds of those wielding power.

By when? >> The Manmohan Singh Government will fall in the first half of next year.

When will the polls be held? >> There will be an early poll, by mid-2008.

Who will form the government? >> A coalition government will come into existence with the Congress as the single largest party.

Who will be the prime minister? >> The name of the next prime minister will start with alphabet S, M or P. In Sonia Gandhi's horoscope, Saturn's mutual aspect with Jupiter indicates a big strength of individuality and recognition. Under the circumstances, she may not openly agree to be a candidate but she will be forced to become the prime minister. This will be a period of acid test for Sonia, and she may again resist the offer. However, shasht chandi yajna is suggested for her.

PANDIT ABHISHEK JOSHI, Jodhpur

Will the Government fall? >> Yes, the Government will fall.

By when? >> By December 3—as the Saturn becomes free from the influence of Leo, to cause problems, there will be major changes in India. Other planetary positions are also ominous for the country. A similar situation had arisen in 1977 resulting in the formation of a new government.

When will the polls be held? >> They will be held after January 15 and the new government will occupy office in February. Jupiter will create the conditions for this change. It is difficult for any single party to form the government.

Who will form the government? >> Under the influence of Saturn and Jupiter, a coalition government, led by the BJP and including some parties from the southern states, is likely to be formed.

Who will be the prime minister? >> A person from the south or west—a Maharashtrian or a person from South India—will be the next prime minister.

VIMAL SINGH, Lucknow

"Both Congress, backed by non-Left partners, and the Left would agree to amicably find out a meeting point."

Will the Government fall? >> No. Ultimately there will be a consensus among the UPA members. The Left too would find a way to avert the crisis. There are enough celestial hints that the present crisis, though a serious one, is transitory.

D.L.N. MURTHY, Hyderabad

Will the Government fall? >> Yes. For this Government, the worst phase of anxiety and its deepening will continue till August 24.

By when? >> The Government will collapse anytime before September 16. This is because of the Sun-Saturn conjunction and the mutual aspect of
