

ist Professionals

In today's world of globalization the companies are looking forward for candidates with diverse skills. Each company has different parameters & priorities while selecting management graduates. To meet the requirements of corporate world Galgotias Business School has made the professional course more stimulating than academic courses at any level. The trimester PGDM courses structured at GBS have a wide range of the most contemporary & innovative curriculum designed to enhance students knowledge, experience, attitude, integrity, communication skills, overall learning Business Acumen. Lectures, group projects, seminars, summer training programs, industrial interaction broadens their perspective & horizons enable them to approach the proclaims not only from their multiple dimensional viewpoints, but also from cultural and ethical perspective as well while making them aware of their social responsibilities. Technical conferences / seminars on current topics according to market trends and relevant to the industry people will be organized. Experts from different walk of life become part of these seminars.

The subject choice in PGDM ranges from Finance, Human Resource Management, Marketing, Systems (Information Technology) and Operations Management to International Management. The specialization in International Business focuses on areas such as International and strategic Marketing and Forex Management. It focuses on Technology management, a combination of Information Technology & Management, comprising two things – first the training focuses on making the student feel confident and developing their leadership qualities as well as managerial skills" says Suneel Galgotia. It is a passion for excellence that our Institute strives for and to maintain the aura of excellence and to ensure the sustainable success, the Galgotias Business School aims at not only preparing the students for a promising career with business Acumen, but for the challenges & opportunities of life as well. Creativity and Innovation are inseparable part of an educational entity as they lead to new techniques. We at the GEI keep this factor in mind and therefore are always striving for excellence.

ADVANTAGE GBS

The board of governors at GBS includes many luminaries from various fields. The chairman of the board is S. B. Budhiraja, former managing director of Indian Oil Corporation and executive Director of MDI Gurgaon. The vice- chairman is Dr. Pritam Singh Padma Shri, former Director IIM, Lucknow; Executive Director MDI, and Board Member, Reserve Bank of India. All the distinguished members of Governing Body chalks out the vision for the growth of the institute.

- Emphasis is laid on developing the learning skills such as problem solving and critical thinking among students.
- Out of the box learning techniques such as classroom learning, case study, group discussions, seminars, quizzes, academic excursions and institute industry interface is adopted to make learning more easy and attractive.
- Curriculum is continually updated to meet the changing requirements of the industry along with new economic realities.
- Facilities to use modern methods and tools for teaching.
- Access to Internet, e-mail facilities, computer center and selectively build-up library.
- Excellent core faculty, coupled with high profile visiting and Guest faculty from premier Institutes/Universities and from the corporate world.
- Groom future managers as per the latest needs of globally acclaimed corporate.

management of a collection of systems, infrastructure & information and second, the management of Information Technology as business function. It is popular with students having relevant professional degree.

GBS also tends to provide scholarship to its meritorious students. The school boasts of its eminent in house faculty supplemented by visiting faculty from industry / business and foreign university. "Experienced and proficient faculty members play a vital role in building a sound foundation for the career of the young talents that's why we take care in choosing our faculty, says Suneel Galgotia. We encourage our faculty members to obtain higher educational qualifications and take various researches".

"The GEI has taken up a challenge not only to give technical and corporate training to the students, but also to guide them to be self-confident and be better human beings. The