

Courting Success

It's never too late to start. Ask Lizi. The Malayalam and Tamil actor, who quit films in 1990, has spent her time looking after her two children and managing her husband, film director Priyadarshan's studios. Two years ago, the badminton bug bit her and Lizi now wants to play at the competitive level. But at 40? "I feel as fit as any 20-year-old," she says. Well played.

CORRECT PITCH

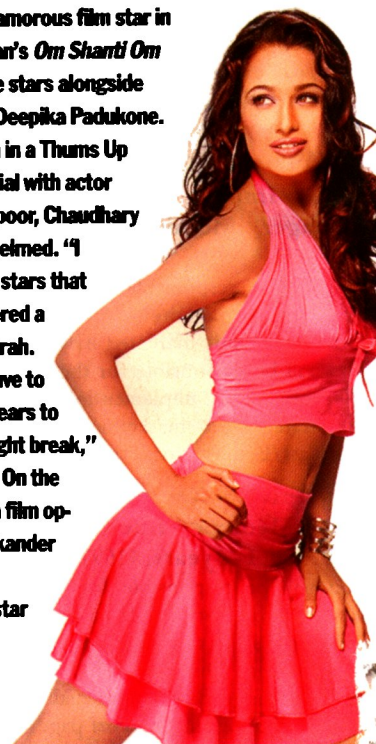

Move over Urmila Matondkar and Nisha Kothari, here's another Ram Gopal Varma discovery who is set to sing the music charts. At 24, Sneha is composing music for his forthcoming film Go. She might look like a wannabe model but makes music like a pro. In fact, so impressed was the filmmaker with her that he has even asked her to compose a song for Sarkar 2. "I don't have any quotes on life and music but I have a tune. Do you want to hear?" she asks. We are all ears.

"I find working with RGV exciting because he always has new ideas up his sleeve."

Desirable Act

This Shah Rukh Khan fan from Meerut is all set to fulfill her life-long dream. Yuvika Chaudhary, a television talent hunt finalist, plays a glamorous film star in Farah Khan's Om Shanti Om where she stars alongside SRK and Deepika Padukone. Last seen in a Thums Up commercial with actor Kunal Kapoor, Chaudhary is overwhelmed. "I thank my stars that I was offered a role by Farah. Others have to wait for years to get the right break," she says. On the cards is a film opposite Sankar Kher. Another star is born?

DESERT SON

He is all of 10, plays the lead role in Bobby Deol-starrer Nanhe Jaisalmer and is already a keen actor. Dwij Yadav, a Class V student of S.M. Shetty High School, Mumbai, plays the role of a camel boy and has reportedly memorised the entire script of the film and remembers every dialogue. "I read the script a few times and memorised everything. I even prompted Bobby uncle when he forgot his lines once," says Yadav, who has also just finished shooting for Roshan, another film with Deol. Small wonder, indeed.
