ET Business Plan Competition 2007

India's leading Business Plan Competition

For graduate and post graduate students of India

Amity, Knowledge@Wharton and The Economic Times are coming together to conduct India's biggest & most professional Business Plan Competition. The competition is open to graduate and post graduate students from accredited institutions/universities all across the country.

The competition will consist of four-member (maximum) teams, developing a business plan on an industry/sector of their choice. The finalists will receive one-on-one mentoring from industry experts through TIE and Amity Innovation Incubator.
