➤ Management estimates Zaynich's peak annual sales potential at $1.5-2 billion; the global addressable market is $7-9 billion

➤ Several antibiotic innovators, including Achaogen, secured approvals but failed to build sustainable businesses because hospitals use new antibiotics for the most severe infections

➤ After returning to profitability in FY26, Wockhardt is betting that Zaynich can become a big contributor to future growth and support its shift towards innovation-led products
