TOXIC TOYS FROM CHINA...

THE BUZZ OF THE WEEK

There was much breast beating about the adjournment of Parliament days before schedule. What is not known is that there was a tacit understanding between the Congress and BJP on not debating the nuke deal in the House.

VOICES

"If the working class cannot disrupt work in a factory, how can the law-makers themselves have that right?"

Sitaram Yechury, CPI(M) leader

"RSS and BJP have completely harmonious relations. Most of us are RSS volunteers. There's no question of any discord."

Rajnath Singh, BJP president

"After Kargil, the Indian prime minister (A.B. Vajpayee) said he was let down by the Pakistani prime minister (Sharif). He was justified in making the remarks. I accept that."

Nawaz Sharif, former Pakistan prime minister

"Motivated attacks on artists amount to illegal censorship, and inhibit artists' creativity by creating an atmosphere of intolerance and hatred."

Somnath Chatterjee, Lok Sabha Speaker

"India does not depend on external resources for its power supply. We don't confuse (George) Bush with bijli (electricity)."

Shyamal Chakraborty, CPI(M) central committee member
