AIG INDIA EQUITY FUND

An open-ended Equity scheme

The best advice comes from someone who's been there, done that. Similarly, investment advice remains mere advice unless backed by a financial commitment from the advisor.

At AIG Investments, this is one of our core business philosophies.

We do not offer you any product unless we have a meaningful stake in the asset class ourselves.

In other words, we put our own money in funds where we advise you to put yours.
