

In commodity futures trading, knowing comes before buying or selling.

What to do

- Trade only through registered Members.
- Familiarize yourself with FMC guidelines, rules, regulations, byelaws, circulars etc. of MCX.
- Take an informed decision: understand commodity details, price impacting parameters, price movements, Government policy etc.
- Understand the Delivery and Settlement Procedure.
- Comply with Taxation and other relevant laws.
- Pay all applicable margins. Collect / pay Mark-to-Market margins on a daily basis.
- Insist on documentation with the Member such as Member Client Agreement, Risk Disclosure Document and Know Your Client.
- Insist on signed Contract Notes containing all relevant information such as Member Registration Number, Order Details, Trade Rate, Quantity etc.
- Obtain receipt for collateral deposited with the Members.
- Insist on a periodical statement of your ledger account.
- Ensure the DIS numbers are pre-printed and your account number is pre-stamped.
- Freeze your demat account in case of a long absence.

What not to do

- Don't get misled by rumors, luring advertisements and promises and bull/bear runs of market sentiment.
- Don't trade any contract without knowing the associated risks.
- Don't deal with entities who are not Members of recognized commodity exchanges.
- Don't undertake off-market transactions.
- Don't accept/pay cash.
- Don't sign blank Delivery Instruction Slips.
- Don't delay payment/deliveries to Members.

Know Your Rights

- You are entitled to receive a contract note for each transaction.
- You are entitled to receive funds towards your pay out within 48 hours.
- In case of any dispute with a Member regarding the trades, a client holding a valid contract note has the right to obtain redressal as per the byelaws of the Exchange (including arbitration).
