AIR HOSTESS ACADEMY (AHA)

Be the Best to Give the Best

AHA (Air Hostess Academy) is one of the leading institutions providing skills and training to candidates for the entire service industry. This includes aviation, hotels, and multinationals. With the service industry receiving a major boost in recent times, the role of AHA has grown considerably. Striving always to be the best in the field, AHA has attached itself to the best as well. It is the first institute of its kind in the world to receive a validation for both its one year and two year diploma course from the University of Cambridge, International Examinations (CIE) - UK. The story does not stop here. Emirates, one of the leading airlines in the world, has chosen to align itself with AHA too. All Emirates' recruitment in India for cabin crew is done through AHA HR Solutions, a part of AHA. Apart from this recently AHA conducted interviews for Qatar airways and The Royal Jordanian airlines. The institute believes in building a lifetime bond with its students, past and present and thus provides placement assistance to its students for life. AHA students are today placed with leading domestic and international airlines and hotels like Emirates, Qatar, Fin air, Oman air, Kingfisher, Air Sahara, Go air, Spice jet, Indigo, Hotel Oberoi, Taj group, Maurya Sheraton, JW Marriot to name a few.

Set up in 1997 by Akash and Sapna Gupta, the 10 year old institute has received innumerable awards, like the Education Training Ratna and the Golden Peacock Award for two consecutive years, in recognition of its innovations in the field of training. For an institute which began with 3 students and one office, it today has 30 centres and 10,000 students spread across the country. Its faculty too is drawn from the best in the fields of aviation and hotels. You have to be the best to give the best.
