

the police is to apprehend criminals "dead or alive".
S.S. RAMANATHA RAO,
Bangalore

The killing of Sohrabuddin is justified as he was a criminal. But the killing of his innocent wife Kausarbi is unacceptable. This only shows that there is corruption within the police force. The matter should be taken up seriously and the guilty should be punished.
SUSHANT KUMAR, Delhi

Green Revolution

Considering that Punjab's agricultural economy has slowed down, it is commendable that the new generation of entrepreneurs are now looking beyond booming sectors like IT and focussing on agriculture ("Agro-Tycoons", May 21). Their efforts will improve the agro business and boost the country's declining revenues in the farm sector.
AVILASH PANDA, on e-mail

Wild Leanings

Greed and corruption are the root causes of depletion of forests in the southern state ("Cull of the Wild", May 21). The culprits should be brought to book and awarded exemplary punishment sooner than later.
V.K. TANGRI, Dehradun

Funding Healthcare

The pathetic decline in Kerala's healthcare system is sad ("Cradle of Death", May 21). A state excelling in most socio-economic parameters should do well in the wellness sector too. To meet the growing needs of funds in government hospitals, the charges for various services must be raised to a reasonable level. Very poor or destitute may, however, be exempted. Only a commercial approach can end the paucity of finance.

VIRENDRA KUMAR, on e-mail

Youth Power

The entry of new and young MLAs in Punjab Assembly is a welcome change ("Assembly of Youth", May 21). They should work in tandem to take the state to new heights. It's heartening to see a generational shift in the state's power politics.

CHETAN PRABHAKAR, Gurgaon

Fame Encounter

It's Shilpa Shetty's turn to become famous ("The Tyranny of Morality", May 14). Be it the Richard Gere fiasco or the Big Brother show, the actress is finally hogging the limelight. With everyone talking about Shetty, one thing is certain: she has finally managed to get noticed. Not too bad for an actress who couldn't do much in Bollywood all these years.
SREEMOYEE PIU KUNDU, Bangalore

FAMILY OVER POLITICS

That fact that the DMK dynasty has finally fallen apart comes as no big surprise ("The War of Ratings", May 21). It only shows that rifts had been mounting between Karunanidhi's sons and the Maranas for quite some time. This is not unusual in politics.
MANNU KUMAR, Delhi

It's sad that Maran has to go because of a family feud. In his three-year stint as telecom minister, he delivered tangible results. Before removing Maran from his post, Karunanidhi should have taken note of that.
V.S. GANESHAN, Bangalore

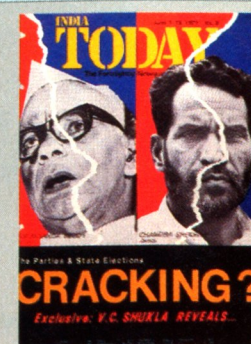

Readers are recommended to make appropriate enquiries before sending money, incurring expenses or entering into commitments in relation to any advertisement appearing in this publication. The India Today Group does not vouch for any claims made by the advertisers of products and services. The printer, publisher, editor-in-chief and the editor of the India Today Group publications shall not be held liable for any consequences in the event of such claims not being honoured by the advertisers.

e-mail your letters to: letters.editor@intoday.com or fax them to: 011-23316180

30

Years Ago in India Today

JUNE 1-15, 1977

Grave Truth

Jesus Christ did not die on the cross, nor did he ascend to Heaven. Instead he went over to Kashmir, lived there for some time, died a natural death and is buried in Rauza Bai, Khanyar, a densely populated area in the interiors of Srinagar. Intrigued by his myth, a large number of foreigners have begun to visit this tomb. The theory was first propounded by Mirza Ghulam Ahmed Qasdiyani (1835-1908), the founder of the Ahmediya sect in India, in his controversial Urdu book Maseeh Hindustan Main (Jesus in India) published in 1899. He challenged the universally established belief regarding the death of Christ. However, the authenticity and veracity of the theory could be established if the so-called grave of Jesus at Rauza Bai is dug, excavations made and the mortal remains of the person buried there examined in a modern scientific way.
Ghulam Nabi Khanal

FOR SUBSCRIPTION ASSISTANCE CALL: (95120) 2479900 from DELHI and FARIDABAD; (0120) 2479900 from REST OF INDIA; Fax (0120) 4078080 KOLKATA: Tel 22821922, 22827726, 22825398 Fax 22825398, 22827254 BANGALORE: Tel 2212448, 2290562, 2218343 Fax 2218335 MUMBAI: Tel 24444423/4/5/6 Fax 24444358 CHENNAI: Tel 28478525-44 Fax 28472178. FOR CUSTOMER CARE CALL: 1800 1800 100 (from BSNL/MTNL lines) 120 2479900 (Monday-Friday; 10am-6 pm); WRITE IN: WE CARE, The India Today Group, A-61, Sector-57, Noida (U.P.)-201301. e-mail: wecare@intoday.com