The End of Jungle Raj

Uttar Pradesh chief minister Mayawati has turned cop with the arrest of many criminal politicians of her own party. Recently, Uma Kant Yadav joined this long list of offenders. With this, she claims the revival of the derailed law and order situation and warns nearly half of the 403 MLAs facing criminal charges that the law shall prevail over the superfluous powers enjoyed in the previous "jungle raj", reports Special Correspondent Subhash Mishra.

Speedy Growth

With the help of technology, the traditional Punjabi trucks have found their way to the welcoming high-ways of Kolkata. As the transport business thrives in the metropolitan city, many business families reap the benefits. Having started with one truck, today some even own over 200 trucks, writes Sharmi Adhikary.
