

THE BUZZ OF THE WEEK

Prashanti Nilayam, Sathya Sai Baba's ashram at Puttaparthi, is all agog at the prospect of Shivraj Patil, an ardent devotee, becoming the country's President. The last high-profile believer was the late P.V. Narasimha Rao.

VOICES

"I have always said that do not judge people when they are in Opposition but judge them when they are in the seat of power."

Manmohan Singh, prime minister

"They (the United States of America) say that they have some problems. We say do not transfer your problems to us."

Pranab Mukherjee, Union minister for external affairs

"People of Jammu and Kashmir have equivalent rights over the nation's resources. Nobody can deny them that. What we get from Delhi is our due, not any khairat (dole)."

Mehbooba Mufti, Peoples Democratic Party president

"In Bihar, Yadavs attain wisdom at the age of 60. Now I am wise."

Lalu Prasad Yadav, Union minister of railways, on his 60th birthday

"At one point there were 3,500 cases against me. Of them, 900 were from Goa and 1,200 from Maharashtra. I should have been in the Guinness Book of World Records."

M. F. Husain, painter
