

COVER STORY: ADOLESCENTS

NO KIDDING 50

From manicures to hair styling, laser surgery and even breast implants, today's adolescents, encouraged by parents, are obsessed with looking good. That is a dangerous trend, making them adults long before their time.

NATION: THIRD FRONT

Yesterday Once More 20

A PRABHAKAR RAO

There is a sense of deja vu as regional chieftains again join hands to offer an alternative to the Congress and the BJP.

STATES: GUJARAT

Setting New Records 24

Though Congress shows signs of revival in Hindutva's showcase state, it will be a tough task to dethrone Modi who harps on his Government's development and anti-terrorism planks.

SPORTS: CRICKET

The Rescuers 44

GIREESH GV

The Ford fiasco has proved that those with greater merit deserve positions of authority in Indian cricket in the next five years.

BUSINESS&ECONOMY: POWER CRISIS

Blacked Out

28

BHASKAR PAUL

Fourteen years of power reforms haven't solved India's electricity crisis as the Centre and the states continue to drag their feet on clearances for projects.

SMART MONEY: NEW TAX RETURN FORMS

Bye Saral, Hello Clarity 32

The new income tax return forms, which replace the Saral forms, explain every detail and make them truly do-it-yourself guides.

SOCIETY&ARTS: CINEMA

A Singular Star

64

With luminous performances in films like The Namesake and Cheeni Kum, Tabu is winning over mainstream audiences, as Bollywood finally grows up for her.
