A Vicious Circle

The Kisaan Credit Card (kcc) is a new bane in the garb of a boon for the small and marginal farmers in Uttar Pradesh. About a decade back, the national banks had launched the kcc scheme to advance credit to needy farmers for purchasing agricultural inputs. The farmers were to repay the loans after selling their produce. Often, due to various reasons, the farmers failed to do so, thereby losing their lands, reports Special Correspondent Subhash Mishra.

WEB FEATURE: DELHI

The Suburban Abode

Delhi has modelled itself after Mumbai as it adopts urban-style living in residential areas. Gurgaon, Noida, Faridabad, Dwarka and Indirapuram, which were areas way off the radar of the city, are in demand now as builders like DLF, with technological help, are moulding such residential, reports Principal Correspondent Supriya David.

Shades of Faith

Being a cosmopolitan city, Mumbai has an intense and diverse cultural side to offer as well. With temples like the Chinese Kuang Kun and the Ayappa, the Magen David Synagogue, the Chand Shah Sahib Dargah, the Japanese Temple, the city is a cultural potpourri which leaves any on-looker awe-struck, tells Swati Mathur.
