

Ananda in the Himalayas, Sakalana, Uttarakhand

► ANANDA IN THE Himalayas is one of India's pioneering holistic wellness retreats. Set within the former Palace Estate of the Maharaja of Tehri-Garhwal, the retreat spans 100 acres. Its approach combines Ayurveda and yoga with physiotherapy, traditional Chinese medicine, and clinical research. Guests invest not merely in longer lives, but in healthier, more fulfilling ones. Its Diabetes Management Programme integrates multiple disciplines to address blood sugar, obesity, dyslipidemia, and emotional wellbeing. Stays begin at three nights, while comprehensive programmes require at least seven nights in duration.

Price: Starts at ₹45,667 per person per night, plus taxes

Atmantan, Mulshi, Maharashtra

► SPREAD ACROSS 42 acres overlooking Mulshi Lake near Pune, Atmantan pairs the calm of the Sahyadris with a broad, science-informed approach to wellness. Its specialists cover Ayurveda, naturopathy, functional medicine, Pranic healing, counselling, acupuncture and fitness, creating personalised programmes. Traditional practices are combined with Western treatments. The retreat has also expanded its physiotherapy and rehabilitation offering with technologies such as TECAR and laser therapy. Ozone therapy is a recent addition. IHCL's recent acquisition of a 51% stake in Atmantan marks its entry into the wellness sector.

Prices: ₹59,590 per night on double occupancy, plus taxes

104 |

