

SwaSwara, Gokarna, Karnataka

► ON GOKARNA'S OM Beach, SwaSwara offers an eco-luxury take on wellness, combining Ayurveda, naturopathy, yoga and art with a strong sense of place. Villas open into private courtyards and gardens filled with healing plants, while the Konkan coastline provides an unhurried backdrop. Programmes range from one to 28 days, with the 14-day Ayurvedic De-stress retreat among the most popular. The Rest and Sleep Enhancement programme blends acupuncture, aromatherapy, sound therapy and hydrotherapy. Personalised nutrition and yoga sessions support the process.

Prices: ₹40,000 per person per night (for ayurvedic de-stress); ₹392,000 per person for 14 days (sleep enhancement)

Swastik Wellbeing Sanctuary, Pune

► TUCKED INTO PEACOCK Valley in Khadakwasla, Pune, Swastik Wellbeing Sanctuary blends the atmosphere of a luxury retreat with a structured, results-led approach. Ayurveda, Panchakarma, naturopathy, and energy healing are combined with modern diagnostics. Its popular weight-management retreat requires a minimum seven-night stay and focuses on lifestyle-led changes rather than extreme restrictions. Weight-conscious nutrition and holistic therapies are tailored for guests. The aim is not simply short-term weight loss, but better body composition, healthier habits and a framework that can continue after the stay.

Price: ₹37,800 plus taxes per night on single occupancy; ₹54,000 plus taxes per night for double occupancy.

