

Manufacturing Majors

Page Industries

Srinivasan Kari, Senior President & Chief Operating Officer (Manufacturing & Operations), Page Industries

OUR 6P PHILOSOPHY ALIGNS OUR VISION, MISSION, AND VALUES WITH OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE AND SUSTAINABLE GROWTH

Apparel Ace

Page Industries' scale, distribution muscle and Jockey partnership keep it ahead in branded apparel

BY PRINCE TYAGI

INCORPORATED IN 1994 Page Industries is one of India's leading branded apparel manufacturers and the exclusive licensee of Jockey and Speedo in India. The company manufactures, markets and distributes innerwear, athleisure, activewear and swimwear, with Jockey as its flagship brand.

The company has built a strong manufacturing and distribution network, backed by experienced management headed by Chairman Sunder Genomal and more than 21,000 employees, with women accounting for around 80% of its workforce.

Page has 15 manufacturing units with annual production capacity of around 280 million pieces and strong backward integration. Its distribution network spans more than 1,16,600 multi-brand outlets, 1,615 exclusive brand stores and 893 large-format stores, while e-commerce has emerged as an important growth channel.

Page has also expanded its international footprint, with Jockey products reaching markets including Sri Lanka, Nepal, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, the UAE, Saudi Arabia and Bahrain. The company also manufactures, markets and distributes Speedo products in India.

Srinivasan Kari, Senior President and Chief Operating Officer (Manufacturing & Operations) says, "Our 6P philosophy—Purpose, People, Process, Productivity, Planet and Progress—aligns our vision, mission, and values with operational excellence and sustainable growth."

Financially, Page delivered a strong performance in FY26. Revenue stood at ₹5,567 crore, EBITDA at ₹1,152.9 crore and profit after tax at ₹763.8 crore. Gross sales increased from ₹1,796 crore in FY16 to ₹5,567 crore in FY26, a 210% rise, while PAT more than tripled from ₹231.5 crore to ₹763.8 crore, registering 230% growth. Managing Director V.S. Ganesh said, at the investor's call, for FY26 the revenue grew 6.3% and PAT increased 4.8%. He highlighted brand strength, product innovation, distribution expansion, retail excellence and supply-chain capabilities as key growth drivers. Page also continues to invest in technology, automation and digital systems to improve efficiency and consumer reach.

As Jockey marks its 150th anniversary, Page Industries was recognised by Jockey International with the "Licensee of the Decade" award for the second consecutive term, reflecting the strength of the partnership. BT

@PrinceInMedia