

Digital transformation tools to set ball rolling for conscious leadership in enterprises, individuals

In a highly dynamic corporate environment, traditional approaches to leadership are being reshaped and replaced by conscious leadership.

Conscious leadership, for the unversed, is an empathetic approach to leading an organization. It goes beyond business acumen and offers a promising holistic approach that transforms both the individuals and organizations.

