

EXPORTS DRIVER

Tarun Garg, MD & CEO, Hyundai Motor India

» Garg said Hyundai Motor India expects India to become its second-largest market globally ahead of its FY30 target, as the automaker ramps up investments, expands production and positions the country as a major product-development hub

BUILDING INDIA

Aakash Ohri, MD, DLF Home Developers

» Ohri made the case that the cities India builds over the next decade will define where the country stands at Independence's centenary. With only six metros to serve as migration destinations, the current infrastructure is inadequate, he said

AI OPPORTUNITIES

Kumaresh Pattabiraman, India Country Head, LinkedIn

» "Since 2023 globally there have been 2 million new jobs that are AI related that have been added and of those a good 311,000 were added in India," Pattabiraman said

LEADERSHIP PHILOSOPHY

Adipen Bose Nandhiji, Founder & CEO, CNESS Inc

» "India will not reach global leadership by 2047 through GDP alone. We also need to think about how we lead, how we innovate, and ultimately, how consciously we use our power," he said
