

THE GOOD LIFE

TRENDS | TECH TODAY

Wine, The G

EIGHT THOUSAND YEARS OF WINEMAKING, ANCIENT CLAY QVEVRI, THE WORLD'S MOST DISTINCTIVE WINE

GUSS HOW MANY

years Georgia has been making wine? Eight thousand years. No wonder, this mountainous country beside the Black Sea, wedged between Russia in the north and Turkey, Armenia and Azerbaijan in the south, is widely celebrated across the world as wine's birthplace. And there is archaeological evidence. Chemical analysis of pottery from the Neolithic sites of Gadachrili Gora and Shulaveris Gora found evidence of grape wine dating to 6000–5800 B.C., pushing viniculture here back roughly