greater national capital region. Last April, the prime minister launched the Delhi-Dehradun Economic Corridor. Delhi no longer feels far as the journey from Delhi to Dehradun can now be completed in two to two-and-a-half hours. Air services from Dehradun connect 50 cities, including Delhi, Mumbai, Ahmedabad, Bengaluru and Chennai, with more than 50 daily flights.

We also have a large industrial area in Haridwar. It is the abode of Mother Ganga. The environment is good and so is the law and order. In our state, good manpower is readily available and industrial strikes and disturbances are not common.

The state, however, is not only about the plain

“There is a perception that investor summits see MoUs but without implementation on the ground. In our case, there was significant implementation”
