

Super Achievers

SAVITRI JINDAL

CHAIRPERSON EMERITUS, OP JINDAL GROUP

Savitri Jindal serves a role that centres on stewardship and continuity across the conglomerate's diverse businesses. She has been associated with the group's philanthropic work through the Jindal Foundation, which runs programmes in education, healthcare, and skill development. Jindal has also been active in public life as a former Cabinet Minister and MLA in Haryana, focusing on community welfare and social development. Today, she remains engaged with group-level oversight while supporting the foundation's initiatives across several states.

120 |

SHEFALI GORADIA

CHAIRPERSON, DELOITTE SOUTH ASIA

The first woman to head a Big Four in India, Goradia is no stranger to breaking barriers. She was an all-India topper and won a gold medal when she qualified as a chartered accountant in 1991. With 35 years of experience as a CA and tax specialist, she has advised numerous multinational companies on structuring and establishing operations in India. She also heads Deloitte's Global Boardroom Program for South Asia that aims to build a strong community of independent directors and board members for corporate India, and serves as Vice Chair of the Permanent Scientific Committee of the International Fiscal Association.

SHOBANA KAMINENI

PROMOTER-DIRECTOR, APOLLO HOSPITALS ENTERPRISE LIMITED AND EXECUTIVE CHAIRPERSON, APOLLO HEALTH CO LTD

Kamineni has played a key role in expanding Apollo's pharmacy, primary care, and digital health businesses, and has been closely involved in building the group's integrated healthcare and retail ecosystem. Her work spans supply-chain expansion, pharmacy modernisation and digital access programmes. Shobana has previously served as President of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and sits on several national and global advisory boards, contributing to broader conversations on healthcare access.

PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA