

Women in Governance

NIDHI KHARE

NIDHI KHARE, SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS

Nidhi Khare is a 1992-batch IAS officer from the Jharkhand cadre. A biochemistry postgraduate, she has held key roles in land resources, consumer protection, direct benefit transfers, and home, environment, and finance ministries. Khare is known for establishing the Central Consumer Protection Authority and driving major reforms in taxation, health, and land administration.

PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA

136 |

RACHNA SHAH

SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL AND TRAINING

Rachna Shah is a 1991-batch, Kerala cadre IAS officer serving as Secretary, Department of Personnel and Training, under the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions. She oversees key reforms in India's civil services. Previously Secretary, Ministry of Textiles, she has held roles across departments at central and state level.

VANDITA KAUL

SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF POSTS

Vandita Kaul, a 1989-batch Indian Postal Service officer, is Secretary, Department of Posts, Government of India. With over 36 years in government, she has led major reforms across the postal department, finance and disability sectors. Kaul has been instrumental in leading some important projects like India Post's APT 2.0 and DIGIPIN— a 10-character alphanumeric digital address code for India that provides a unique and precise location for every 4x4 meter grid in the country. Trekking and reading are Kaul's preferred choices to unwind.

