

Women in Governance

NIVEDITA SHUKLA VERMA

SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF CHEMICALS & PETROCHEMICALS

Nivedita Shukla Verma, a 1991 batch officer of Uttar Pradesh cadre, is now Secretary, Department of Chemicals & Petrochemicals. She has held key roles in the Ministry of Defence and Cabinet Secretariat, contributing to policy and administrative reforms. In her present role, she focuses on innovation, sustainability and enhancing competitiveness of the chemical industry. She balances her responsibilities with interests in reading and arts.

GEETA SINGH RATHORE

DIRECTOR GENERAL, NATIONAL SAMPLE SURVEY

A 1992-batch officer of the Indian Statistical Service, Geeta Singh Rathore is the Director General of the National Sample Survey, which has just completed 75 years. At NSS, Rathore oversees the largescale socio-economic surveys undertaken across the country that are essential to assess the impact of policies and the level of development. With the government looking to bridge the country's data deficit, Rathore and her team have a crucial role to play in bringing out the many surveys necessary. But with a ready smile and an ever-patient attitude, Rathore has made this humongous job look easy.

GEETA SINGH RATHORE PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA