AMISHA VORA

CMD, PL CAPITAL

Amisha Vora swears by trust, transparency, and client-centricity. The Chairperson and Managing Director of financial services firm PL Capital is busy transforming the eight-decade-old brokerage into a future-ready wealth and investment powerhouse. Under her, the firm has pioneered quant-led and non-discretionary PMS offerings while expanding into private credit with its first Category II alternative investment fund. Vora is steering the organisation toward an artificial intelligence (AI)-embedded, insight-driven future designed to create durable value.

ANANYA BIRLA

FOUNDER, CHAIRPERSON & DIRECTOR, SVATANTRA MICROFIN PVT LTD

Microfinance is one of the toughest businesses to be in. Ananya Birla was aware of that when she ventured into that space at just 17. Today, her venture Svatantra occupies a pride of place in the industry through organic growth and buyouts—the acquisition of Chaitanya Fin Credit was a big deal. Soon enough, the likes of Advent International and Multiples Private Equity pumped ₹1,930 crore into Svatantra, the largest private equity infusion in the sector. Birla's work cuts across finance, real estate, beauty, technology, and mental health, reflecting a multifaceted vision. But, Birla is hungry for more. Given her record, who would bet against her.

ANITA LAL

FOUNDER & CREATIVE DIRECTOR, GOOD EARTH

Anita Lal launched Good Earth, a leading luxury design house, in 1996, driven by a mission to bring India's village crafts into contemporary relevance. Now, as it turns 30, Good Earth has unveiled its first international foray, Good Earth Chahar Bagh—a bespoke experience in Al Barsha, Dubai. She will soon launch a Himalayan botanical-based skincare line that addresses skin health for all ages and genders. Lal believes that the brand's future is offline and its key flagships are being revamped with a 'boutique' approach.
