a common language, proving that our infrastructure and hospitality are now world-class."

He expressed confidence that events like BT Golf would further boost investor interest, proving that the region's infrastructure and hospitality are now world-class.

Building on this vision of progress, APM Mohammed Hanish, IAS, Additional Chief Secretary, Government of Kerala, highlighted the state's aggressive push towards green industries and investor-friendly reforms. Reflecting on Kerala's dramatic economic shift, he remarked, "We intended to reverse the myth that Kerala is only good for holidays and not for work. By moving from the 28th rank to becoming number one in the Ease of Doing Business rankings, we have proven that our success is not a fluke, but a devotion to reform."

The day culminated in a spirited prize distribution ceremony that honoured the standout performers on the CIAL greens. Cmdr. Paras Gosain of the Indian Navy claimed the prestigious title of Winner (0-14 handicap) with 37 points, while Karam Mander, an investment expert, led the way for a growing field of talent as the winner in the women's category with 33 points. The winner (15-24 handicap) trophy went to Dinesh Babu, Secretary of the Cochin Golf Club, with 36 points. In the runner-up categories, Lt. Col. Bhupendra Singh Chauhan of the Indian Army took the honours for the 0-14 handicap group (36 points), and Bobby Varghese, CEO of Se-Mentor Solutions (P) Ltd, secured the 15-24 handicap runner-up spot with 35 points on a better back nine.

Precision and power were rewarded in the technical categories as well. The title for Qatar Airways Longest Drive was secured by Joseph Joseph, CMO of Veejay Fishnet Industry, with a massive 279-yard strike on hole 9. T M Shaji, a real estate developer, displayed surgical accuracy to win the AU Small Finance Bank Closest to Pin on hole 14, landing just 19 inches away. Rounding out the specialised awards, Cmdr. Bobby Varghese of the Indian Navy won the KSIDC Closest to Pin on hole 17 with 12 feet 9 inches. BT
