

THE SOVEREIGN CIRCUIT

After decades of enabling global giants, Indian conglomerates are shifting India's semiconductor playbook from services to higher-value chip design

BY NIDHI SINGAL

IMAGE BY RAHUL SHARMA/AI

IN A NUTSHELL

THE INDIA SEMICONDUCTOR MISSION 1.0 AND INCENTIVES INITIALLY NUDGED INDIAN CONGLOMERATES TOWARDS FABS AND OSAT (OUTSOURCED SEMICONDUCTOR ASSEMBLY AND TESTING)

CONGLOMERATES SUCH AS L&T, MURUGAPPA GROUP, AND TATA GROUP ARE NOW WORKING ON CHIP DESIGN AND IP OWNERSHIP