

(Centre) A Louis Daniel, Cosmos V Build Pvt Ltd, receiving his award for the 0-14 handicap category from the official sponsors

A Chandrasekhar, (left), winner, AU Small Finance Bank Longest Drive award

Philip Mathan (left), Vice President, Quikr.com

Padmanabhan Srinivasan (right), CEO, Geazy Technologies

Pradeep Swaminathan (left), MD, Beck and Call Business Services

Power had its say as well. On Hole 2, Philip Mathan, Vice President at Quikr, unleashed a 263-yard drive to claim the Qatar Airways Longest Drive. Precision took centre stage on Hole 4, where S. Kumar found himself six feet from the pin to secure the AU Small Finance Bank Closest to Pin.

Across categories, consistency proved decisive. In the 15-24 handicap segment, M. Mariappan, Director at Hibizcus Ventures, emerged as the winner with 37 points. In the 0-14 handicap category, A. Louise Daniel, Managing Director of Cosmos V Build Pvt Ltd, claimed the top honour with 35 points.

S KUMAR (left), winner of AU Small Finance Bank's closest to pin award

Nagaraj Dhanasekar (right), CEO, Reyansh Texports

The women's category reflected the same composure, with Mangla Devi S finishing with 30 points, her round marked by calm decision-making under pressure.

As the Chennai sun softened and conversations lingered beyond the final putt, BT Golf Chennai revealed its true character. It wasn't about speed or spectacle, but about alignment - of skill, strategy, and vision. BT

@sakshibatra18