THE CASE FOR A CUT

▶ The number of income taxpayers and the mop-up from non-corporate tax has risen significantly over the years

▶ High inflation and low salary hikes are eating into the disposable income of the middle classes

▶ Professionals and salaried individuals contend that a large share of the burden for both GST and income tax falls on them

▶ Calls for a significant income tax cut had started before the General Elections and have since continued

▶ Taxpayers are now pinning hopes on Budget 2025-26 to ease their burden
