whisky brand celebrating its 200th anniversary. A year in the making, the event was as exclusive as it was ambitious. The Rocas and Macallan have been partners for over a decade, their shared commitment to craftsmanship culminating in projects like TimeSpirit, a restaurant on Macallan's 485-acre Speyside estate.

Lunch began in El Celler's courtyard, dressed in vibrant red hues for the occasion. The brothers greeted us alongside Jaume Ferràs, Macallan's Creative Director. Over glasses of whisky, Ferràs set the tone: "With the Roca brothers, we've created a menu for today and today only. It will never happen again."

Inside the sleek dining room, Joan welcomed us warmly, describing the meal as a celebration of shared artistry as Josep poured blanc de blancs Champagne.
