

Former cricketer Ajit Agarkar has taken to golf after hanging up his cricket boots

The Greatest GAME

THE SILVER JUBILEE EDITION OF BUSINESS TODAY GOLF'S MUMBAI LEG WAS PLAYED AT THE HISTORIC WILLINGDON SPORTS CLUB

BY RAHUL BANERJI

THE ENERGY WAS palpable on a warm Friday afternoon in Mumbai's Willingdon Sports Club. Nestled away from the maddening crowd, the grounds hosted the Mumbai leg of Royal Ranthambore BT Golf's 2024-25 silver jubilee edition.

On January 17, 2025, numerous golf enthusiasts converged in the Maximum City, in an event that brought together business leaders and golf enthusiasts.

Escaping the city rush was the chairman of the Board of Control for Cricket in India's (BCCI) Senior Men's Selection Committee, Ajit Agarkar, who set aside his cricket duties to relax with golf.

The 0 to 14 handicap section saw the tightest competition as Karan Kamte of Goldfield Fragrances edged out Navnit Group's CEO John Wilcox by 41 points to

PHOTOS BY MILIND SHELTE