

40. In the well-represented Ladies section, Rohini Chatterjee of Angel One Wealth topped the field with 34 points. Rajeev Shrivastava, with 39 points, won the 15 to 24 handicap competition.

Gracing the event was chief guest Ashish Shelar, Minister of State for Information Technology and Cultural Affairs, Government of Maharashtra. Among the winners was Soheli Lalvani of Toniq Retail Bands, who walked away with the 'Radico Straightest Drive' on Hole 1, with

(From left) Saptarshi Chattopadhyay, AVP Sales, Sunteck Realty; Karan Kamte of Goldfield Fragrances; Ashish Shelar, Minister of State for Information Technology and Cultural Affairs of Maharashtra; Alok Nair, Chief Operating Officer, Business Today; and Pradipta Basu, Vice President, Marketing, Radico Khaitan

Bharti Thakore, Founder & CEO of New Millennium Education Partners

Winners and participants of the Mumbai leg of the invite-only Royal Ranthambore Business Today Golf tournament at the Willingdon Sports Club, on Friday, January 17, 2025