

GUJARAT ADANI INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES (GAIMS): A MILESTONE IN PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP IN HEALTHCARE

The Gujarat Adani Institute of Medical Sciences (GAIMS) stands as a testament to the power of resilience and the success of public-private partnerships in the healthcare sector. Established in Bhuj, Gujarat, GAIMS has a rich history that traces its origins back to the establishment of the G K General Hospital in 1956.

Foundation of G K General Hospital

The GAIMS, originally known as G K General Hospital, was built in 1956 with a generous donation from Shri Gordhan Khetsi. Initially intended to serve the local community, the hospital became a vital healthcare facility in Bhuj. However, the devastating earthquake of 2001 in Gujarat wreaked havoc, destroying the hospital and leaving the community in despair.

Promise of Rebuilding

In the wake of the earthquake, Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee, the then Prime Minister of India, visited the site and promised the local people that the hospital would be
