

TAG Heuer Carrera Chronograph Tourbillon

► PURPLE—A COLOUR associated with royalty is making inroads into the watch world. Not surprising, as quite a few watches today are meant for modern-day royalty. The TAG Heuer Carrera Chronograph Tourbillon, with a smoky purple dial, is one such watch. Limited to only 200 pieces, it is truly a collector's item. At 42mm wide, the tourbillon is powered by an in-house movement—the Heuer 02 TH20-09—which counteracts the effects of gravity for precise timekeeping. It has a 65-hour power reserve and comes with a classic black leather strap.
