LONG DRIVES AND smart play were the highlights of the Royal Ranthambore BT Golf's Chandigarh edition. India's oldest corporate tournament travelled to the Tricity—Chandigarh, Mohali, and Panchkula—last week as part of its silver jubilee year.

Favourable weather and ideal conditions at the Panchkula Golf Club set the tone for the match, held on January 25. True to their reputation of producing talented sportspersons, Chandigarh, Mohali, and Panchkula delivered some of the longest drives recorded this season. Hartaj Pargat Singh, son of former India hockey captain Pargat Singh, drove the ball a massive 340 yards to win one of the spot prizes.

Two other long drive prizes also went to participants who crossed the 300-yard line at Panchkula. This was the first time since 2022 that such distances were collectively recorded at a BT Golf event. It also highlighted the competitive spirit of the participants, all fighting for a range of prizes sponsored by Radico, Bandhan Mutual Fund, and Indian Oil, with MG Motors driving the event.

“Sport teaches you many things—it teaches you how to live in and be a contributing part of society,” Pargat tells BT. “You have to
