

7

8

9

←
Shalini
Sheron

10

learn to be patient, think about others whether it is a team game or not. We are working with each other. Apart from that there is also the physical and mental stability of the game—all sports in fact—that is such an important part of life.”

In the afternoon, the popular BT Golf clinic took place, filled with fun, laughter, and friendly competition, offering quick lessons on the basics of the game, putting, and other beginner tips.

Tanisha Kalyan won the ladies event with an impressive 38 points, while Ankush Garg and Arun Gupta topped the 0 to 14 handicap and 15 to 24 handicap sections, respectively, with 39 points each.

Both the men’s events needed a countback to decide the runners-up. M. P. Singh finished second in the 0 to 14 competition on 37 points with a better back nine count. Vipul Sehgal, also with 37 points, took the prize on a better back six than his closest rivals.

Besides Hartaj’s hefty 340 yards to top the Bandhan Large Cap competition, Sandeep Sandhu (Radico Longest Drive) and Siddharth Jain (Indian Oil Longest Drive) both crossed 300 yards. Jas Pratap Singh was on the line in the Bandhan Mid Cap straightest drive, while Anil Jagnani was eight inches off the white line for the Radico Straightest Drive prize. BT