Ampa Palaniappan's Legacy: Transforming Skylines, Elevating Lifestyles

A Trailblazing Entrepreneur Shining Across Spheres

It takes a visionary leader to build a thriving legacy. Ampa Palaniappan, the Managing Director of the renowned the six-decade-old Ampa Group exemplifies this spirit of leadership and excellence. A third-generation serial entrepreneur, Ampa Palaniappan began his career in construction and leasing, building several commercial and residential projects.

His farsighted vision for the Ampa Group led him to launch and operate diverse businesses across multiple sectors, each of which has set a new benchmark in each field.

'The Visionary Behind Iconic Landmarks' Ampa SkyOne Mall

In the late 2000s, Ampa Palaniappan envisioned a world-class shopping destination that would offer a blend of retail and entertainment. This inspired him to launch Ampa Skywalk, now known as Ampa SkyOne Mall.

Ampa Sishya School

Ampa Palaniappan's keen interest in education has inspired him to build a school named Ampa Sishya (ICSE) to bring world-class education to the children of today. His efforts are helping them create the foundation for a better tomorrow.

The Mayavaram Financial Chit Corporation Ltd.

Ampa Palaniappan acquired the Mayavaram Financial Chit Corporation, a reputed chit fund and finance company, propelling it to remarkable growth.

Taj Sky View Hotel & Residences

Under Ampa Palaniappan's leadership, the Ampa Group has collaborated with Taj, the iconic hospitality brand, to launch Taj Sky View Hotel & Residences—the world's first Taj branded residences and Chennai's tallest Taj Hotel. With a legacy of over 120 years, Taj has been globally recognised as the World's Strongest Hotel Brand 2024 and India's Strongest Brand 2024 by Brand Finance. Taj Sky View is Chennai's new address of prestige on Nelson Manickam Road.

The landmark development, featuring 123 ultra-luxury branded residences, 36 boutique offices, and a 253-room hotel, is the perfect blend of timeless sophistication and contemporary
