QUALITY, TECHNOLOGY, INNOVATION

Bharat Electronics Limited (BEL) is proud to celebrate 70 years of excellence in operation. As a 'Navratna' Defence Public Enterprise, BEL has been a trusted technology partner for India's Defence forces. While Defence remains its primary focus, BEL has diversified into various sectors including Civil Aviation, Solar Energy, Railway & Metro Systems, Network & Cyber Security, Homeland Security, Smart City Solutions, Medical Electronics, and Artificial Intelligence.

The company has played a significant role in modernising India's voting system with the Electronic Voting Machine and supporting the fight against COVID-19 by supplying ventilators.

Today, BEL is a global company that exports a wide range of high-tech products.

As we commemorate this milestone, BEL remains dedicated to exceeding expectations by staying at the forefront of technological advancements and making a positive impact on the world through innovations.
