WITH ITS GLEAMING clubhouse, pristine fairways and well-manicured greens, Tollygunge Club put forward its best face for Royal Ranthambore Business Today Golf's Kolkata leg in the silver jubilee edition of the country's longest-running corporate tournament.

Such was the level of competition on Saturday, February 8, that two of the three categories required second-nine and second-six countbacks to separate the winners from the runners-up at the historic course, which was also in preparation for the season-opener on the men's professional golf tour.

Making the most of the course's preparations, Aashera Sethi topped the ladies' competition with 37 points, while Gaurav Ghosh
